to have spent half of eternity like chips at a poker game would still make you richer than the moneyhungry without morality to have spent that

to have had that
to have considered
that half of eternity
is still something greater than anything ever

even so i would spend
half of my eternity
with you

Tuesday
Found [illegible] lock for safe inside of "accursed room" down hall Can [illegible] out. This will do something. need to get there [illegible] on a national holiday on a thanksgiving or similar [illegible] there. I need the money.

Wednesday
[illegible] up and feeling horrible, 1984

[illegible] lock is 9827 and I will remember it published the document publish the document publish the document

Remember the code via the zine Please reach out I need to find someone I am looking for someone
found another excuse another excuse to just set the fucking place on fire and get out of it a[illegible]

Friday
[illegible] years ago I [illegible] out onto the street completely naked hoping so[illegible] [illegible] me for public indecency or something because I just want out I just want sta[illegible] [illegible] of a coffin forever. It sounds pessimistic and not as whimsical and [illegible] positive as I usually am but that was just what it was. It feels better [illegible] that eventually
All of this will be over. That sounds pessimistic as well but that's just what [illegible]

The death [illegible]

I went out there naked and the first thing I felt was the wind and the second thing I felt was the lack of people looking at me nobody even noticed me that's the kind of place I work in
I [illegible] and my boss slapped my ass and I just told myself [illegible] again this attempt
[illegible] get arrested by robbing a place [illegible] [illegible] just ask the cops to take [illegible] jail not sure why I'm thinking of this now but yeah that's what im thinking of

Saturday
there's a hole with nothing underneath it there's a hole with nothing underneath it I remember it
Nobody understands exactly what I saw so I'll reiterate again for the people, for the record,
for anything

There was nothing there. I peered in through the little cavern that existed underneath [illegible]
[illegible] began to stare back at me instead there was a hole and it tapered off [illegible]
peephole which glanced into the beyond and everything around me I observed slowly made its way
its [illegible] passage into the hole

Some people say this is scientifically impossible but some people didn't see what I saw and that's why
they're misinterpreting what i said

S[illegible]
The [illegible] is long and the toil is hard. I don't want to describe what my work is because nobody would really get it and people stop talking to me after I describe it.

theres something in the water ripple disturbing
patterns vibrating
nothing but animals
waiting for the next distraction
the next stimulation does it make you feel alive?
bring you closer to your death?
perhaps none and both at once polar opposites
somehow conjoined
at the tip
does it make you roll around in sunlight
doies it make you breathe your mind out through your lungs
do you crave the peace and quiet or the fireworks chaotic?
up or down? left or right? in or out? black or white?
will you make of yourself something or forever be forgotten?
will you ever feel
like anything matters?
or just wander round
empty and lifeless
until earth returns
your decaying body.
